CHAIRWOMAN DIMITRIJEVIC APPOINTS JAMIE KUHN AS DIRECTOR OF MILWAUKEE COUNTY INTERGOVERNMENTAL RELATIONS

Milwaukee – County Board Chairwoman Marina Dimitrijevic is pleased to announce that she has selected Jamie Kuhn as Director of Intergovernmental Relations, effective November 2, 2012 and upon confirmation by the County Board of Supervisors.

As Director of Intergovernmental Relations, Kuhn will be the key advocate for Milwaukee County legislative priorities at the State Capitol.

"Jamie will make an excellent addition to our team at the County Board as we work together to improve the quality of life of people in Milwaukee County," said Chairwoman Dimitrijevic. "Having provided staff support to key legislative leadership positions, Jamie brings exceptional insights and invaluable relationships from her experience in state government that will benefit Milwaukee County and translate into real results."

Kuhn has more than twelve years of experience at the Wisconsin State Capitol, from both the State Assembly and the State Senate. She also has prior experience as a registered lobbyist.

"Jamie is clearly a very high caliber appointment for IGR Director, and I look forward to working with her, on behalf of our citizens, to advance the legislative agenda of Milwaukee County," said Chair of the Intergovernmental Relations Committee Supervisor Theodore Lipscomb, Sr.

Currently, Kuhn is the Chief of Staff to the State Senate Majority Leader, and she served in that same role when he was the Co-Chair of the Joint Committee on Finance.

Kuhn was born in Korea, raised in River Falls, graduated from the University of Wisconsin – Green Bay and earned a Master's Degree in Social Work from the University of Wisconsin – Madison.
